

GRAND CANYON ITEMS

C. B. Williams County attorney, L. F. Verkamp, Fred W. Smith and Mrs. Bozena Allen, of Flagstaff were among last weeks visitors.

Count and Countess S. Raben of Denmark who are sight seeing at the Canyon spent two days at the Hermit Camp.

A party of distinguished Japanese diplomats were at the El Tovar Monday. They were, R. S. Handa, R. Kimvoya, O. Matsuo and Dr. Med. T. Abe.

On the 28th Michael Meedford, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rosenberry, Mrs. Della Evans, Mrs. Mary Peat and Miss Lulu Smith of Flagstaff, were Canyon visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swanner and family, of Anita, have sold their house and stock and moved to Flagstaff.

Great excitement reigned here Monday when a guest at the El Tovar found her maid missing. The power house whistle shrieked its two toots signifying that someone was missing and parties searched for the missing woman, who all the time was sitting on the rim near the hotel reading a novel. She liked the novel and the view of the Canyon and decided not to go in to lunch and when she tired of both she went into the El Tovar with the question: "Why are the whistles blowing?" And then the whistles began blowing anew to bring in the searching parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Holloway left Wednesday morning for a two weeks visit with friends in Dallas and San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Holloway's mother from Williams will take care of the children during their absence.

3,000 copies of the News will be printed this week and a copy mailed to each registered voter in the county.

Hallowe'en Party At Clothier's

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clothier gave a Hallowe'en party at their home at which about 45 guests appeared in proper Hallowe'en apparel, sheet and pillow case. The decorations were appropriate and were in paper the proverbial black cat being conspicuous. The party was entertained with cards and dancing. Other stunts there were we suspect, but the mystery of the night forbade their divulgence. Refreshments were served at the mystic hour of 12 at which time Miss Vivian Spellmire entertained the company in her inimitable manner with song, dance and speaking. The Clothiers deny that their guests are at all responsible for the many mysteriously misplaced articles seen about Town this morning.

Mrs. W. M. and Kenneth Hughes, Miss Baker of Fresno, Calif., and Marshall Hughes visited Grand Canyon Sunday, going up by auto.

Jim Ross, a former Williams boy but now of Winslow, is in Town on a visit to his mother, Mrs. John Klock.
